PRICE ONE CENT.

NO MILITIA.

"Don't Call the Guards," Gov. Bushnell Wires.

The Governor's Private Secretary's Orders Have Been Revoked.

He Thinks the Situation at Berea is Not Grave Enough to Warrant the Calling Out of the Militia—Bushnell is On His Way to Columbus.

HARTFORD, Ct., July 2.—Just as the centennial exercises at the Congregational church at Old Saybrook were closing Wednesday afternoon a messenger boy rushed into the church with a telegram for Gov. Bushnell, of Ohio, who had delivered an address, speaking on "The Connecticut Settlement of Ohio." The telegram was from the governor's private secretary, Col. J. L. Rodgers, at Columbus, saying that Sheriff Leek, of Cuyahoga county, had sent word to the state capitol that the strike of union quartermen at Berea had assumed such proportions that the civil authorities were powerless and had asked that four companies of the Ohio national guard be sent to his assistance.

Col. Rodgers also said that he had informed the sheriff that he had the power himself to call out the militia and that the sheriff had ordered the officers of the Fifth regiment to have their companies in readiness to report to him. Gov. Bushnell at once sent a dispatch saying: "Don't call out the national guard," and advised Sheriff Leek not to do so.

To a reporter Gov. Bushnell said: "I don't think the situation is grave enough to warrant the calling out of troops."

The governor left for New York on an evening train, and will go from there to Columbus.

Shot In Open Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 2.—In the Baldwin-Ashley damage suit Thursday morning Emma Ashley, about 26 years of age, sister of Lillian Ashley, the plaintiff, fired a shot from a revolver at E. J. Baldwin, the defendant, in open court. The shot grazed the millionaire horseman's head. She was at once arrested. She is believed to be insane.

Miners' Wages Increased.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 2.—The new wage scale of the 10,000 coal miners in the Birmingham district went into effect Thursday, to continue for two years. By its operation an advance of seven per cent. in wages is granted. The advance prevented a strike and makes the situation highly satisfactory.

THE TWIN SHAFT.

The Work of Rescuing the Imprisoned Miners Progressing Slowly.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 2.—It can not be truthfully said that the affairs at the Twin Shaft Thursday morning are any better than they were Wednesday night. The shift that went down at two o'clock Thursday morning returned to the surface at nine o'clock and report but little progress. There has been no further settling and as far as can be seen there are no indications of another squeeze. The rock that was struck Wednesday afternoon is being removed slowly. The wall that conducts the ventilation was found to be somewhat out of shape and much time was spent in straightening it up. Not over 40 feet of debris has been removed since four o'clock Wednesday afternoon, but better progress may be made Thursday. All hope as to finding any of the men alive is abandoned. It is the belief of General Superintendent Morgan, of the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal Co., that it will be fully two weeks before they can reach the bodies, and that there is also a probability that they may never be recovered.

LOCOMOTIVE BOILER

Explodes Near Hartzell, Ala.—Three Men Killed—Engine Blown to Pieces.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 2.—The boiler of engine 230 on the southbound freight train No. 15, on the Louisville & Nashville railroad, exploded Thursday morning at 4:13 o'clock, one and a half miles south of Hartzell, Ala. The engine was blown to atoms and eighteen cars on the train were badly wrecked. Engineer James Jones was terribly mangled, dying three hours after the explosion. Fireman Dan Akers, colored, and Front Brakeman L. Jenkins, colored, were instantly killed and Flagman A. C. Sanford was slightly hurt. The train was going at a rapid rate when the explosion occurred. What caused the accident will never be learned. Wrecking crews from Decatur and Birmingham are now clearing the main line. Jones had a family and lived here. The dead bodies were brought to Birmingham Thursday morning.

Burned the Groom's Home.

MOLTON, Ind., July 2.—At Hollytown, one mile west of this place, Ed McClure, a young stone-cutter, had built a new house and was preparing to move into the same, as he had been lately married. Wednesday evening some unknown person set fire to the building and burned it to the ground.

Heavy Odds on McKinley.

NEW YORK, July 2.—At the stock exchange Thursday J. S. Bache & Co. offered to bet $10,000 against $4,000 that McKinley will be the next president.

SILVER MEN

Appear Before the National Sub-Committee.

They Wanted to Secure Control of the Permanent Chairmanship.

Vice President Stevenson in Chicago—Phil Thompson Looking After Blackburn's Interests—Tillman on the Ground—Ohio Vanguard Reaches Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 2.—The reconnoitre Wednesday of the skirmish guard of the silver forces upon the outposts of the national democratic committee as planned by its sub-committee, was variously viewed by the participants after the former had retired to its own camp.

VICE PRESIDENT STEVENSON.

According to Chairman Harrity, the visiting delegation, composed of Senators Turpie, Daniel, Jones and Govs. Stone and Altgeld simply "fenced for points," and according to Altgeld and Senator Daniel, the fencing was entirely satisfactory to the silver side. At least one of their colleagues, however, was inclined to regard the outcome as a draw, with the indications favorable to the silver men getting the worst of it when final conclusions were tried with the national committee next Monday. The purpose of the visit of the silver delegation to the national sub-committee, was to present the views of the leaders of the white metal majority concerning the selection of temporary chairman, the disposition of contests, and the roll call on the temporary organization.

Senator Jones led in the presentation of the silver case, and was followed by Senator Turpie and Gov. Altgeld. When they had concluded Chairman Harrity, who had previously consulted with his associates, and found them to be of one mind, explained that the sub-committee was possessed of no inherent power to settle the question at issue. He referred the delegation to the record of the preliminary proceedings of the sub-committees and the committees of 1890 and 1894, and pointed out that it was the exclusive province of the full national committee to pass provisionally upon contesting delegations in making up the preliminary roll of that convention.

SENATOR TILLMAN.

tion. As to the matter of temporary chairman, it was one also altogether within the control and discussion of the national committee, but he was willing to promise that nothing definite in this direction should be done until the delegation had been afforded on Monday an opportunity of conferring with the full body. For the present himself and his associates, without prejudice to either side, were powerless to act. With this crumb of comfort the delegation was compelled to content.

Vice President Stevenson's presence under the roof of the Palmer house for a few hours en route to his home in Bloomington, failed to create even a flutter of interest. His callers were numerous, but their missions were more social than political, and the vice president himself declined to discuss the situation or the coming convention even from an abstract point of view. It was noticeable, however, that most of his callers were identified with the gold standard element of the Illinois democracy and this led to the circulation of a rumor that if the Altgeld-bimetallite element insisted upon naming the temporary chairman Mr. Stevenson might be offered them as a compromise based upon the fact that as a representative Illinois democrat, he could scarcely with good grace be antagonized by the delegation of this state. As a matter of fact, however, the rumor was more shadow than substance. No such contingency has presented itself to the sub-committee, and this party will make no representations on the subject to the full committee.

Senator Blackburn is the only delegate to attend the convention preliminaries who is an active presidential candidate. His interests are being carefully preserved and nurtured into enthusiasm by his friend, Phil Thompson, jr., of New York. The two have quarters adjoining in the Auditorium annex and much quiet work was done Wednesday. The genial senator declines to do any talking for publication, considering his name will be presented to the convention. He tried to keep cool during the heat of the day by sitting in his room without vest, coat, collar or tie, and in this negligence undressed received scores of visitors. The senator's position on the question of dispensing with the two-thirds rule is that there is no use trying to suspend the time honored rule until the necessity for such action presents itself during the balloting. By appointment Senator Dupois of the bolting republican contingent called on Senator Blackburn at his apartments and held a secret conference in the presence of Phil Thompson which lasted some time. The Idaho senator's visit was in the interests of his leader, Senator Teller, and it is presumed that the contingent support of the Blackburn strength was asked for the Colorado senator. It is a fact, confirmed by the admission of Senator Blackburn that the south feels very kindly toward Senator Teller, especially because of his fight in the senate against the Lodge "Force" bill, but among the southern old line democrats, irrespective of the money question, it would be a difficult task to create a sentiment favorable to voting for a man who only a few days ago was a republican partisan.

The Bland headquarters in the Auditorium annex, Sherman house and Palmer house were the scenes of activity and confident talk all day and far into the night. A fourth rallying place for the Bland shouters will be open in a day or two at the Auditorium in charge of Secretary George W. Allen, of the Bland executive committee. Judge Shackelford will have charge of the Sherman house headquarters when the decorations are in shape. Delegates White, of Washington, Overmeyer, of Kansas, and Jones, of Arizona, were among the visitors to the Bland headquarters Wednesday to speak of their support and that of other delegates for the Missouri.

State Senator Bailey, of Indianapolis, arrived at the Auditorium annex as the advance agent of the Matthews delegation from that state. He said the delegation was unanimous for the governor and free silver in spite of the contest which Bynum is expected to make on behalf of the gold faction. Several hundred Matthews criers will be here with the delegation and band of music Monday to open headquarters.

Senator Tillman arrived in time to attend the silver delegates meeting and he was called on for a speech. He responded with an aggressive declaration for the assumption and maintenance of complete control of the convention in all of its stages by the silver majority and spoke enthusiastically of the spread of silver sentiment in his state. Ex-Senator Martin, of Kansas, and Senator-elect Money, of Mississippi, also made vigorous speeches on the same line and the applause which followed each speech attested the sympathy of the audience.

The vanguard from Ohio reached here Wednesday morning and hung out their colors at the Palmer house. The head of the cohort from the Buckeye state was Dan McConville, who used to be sixth auditor of the treasury under Cleveland's first administration. Mr. McConville will have charge of the Ohio headquarters, and there he will nurse with care and solicitude the boom of Ohio's favorite son on the democratic side, J. R. McLean.

"We are going to lay low and take things quietly for the present," said Mr. McConville, "but we will make things warm before the close of the week. Keep your eye on McLean. He will get 46 votes from Ohio at the start, and he will grow."

Several hundred Ohio men will sweep into town Saturday or Sunday.

CHICAGO, July 2.—At one o'clock Thursday it was stated at the free silver headquarters that the choice for temporary chairman had narrowed down to Gov. Stone, of Missouri, or William J. Bryan, of Nebraska. Before his departure for Springfield Wednesday night Gov. Altgeld announced that he did not desire the honor and Thursday his lieutenants are deprecating any further use of his name in that connection. The chief objection to Gov. Stone is that he is the leading representative of Mr. Bland's candidacy, and consequently not particularly acceptable to the gentlemen having in charge the interests of ex-Gov. Boies, Gov. Matthews and other candidates. At the same time it is conceded that he would make an admirable presiding officer.

The suggestion of Mr. Bryan's name is favorably received by the friends of all the candidates whose headquarters are already opened.

STRIKER WOUNDED.

The Trouble at the Brown Hoisting Works Assuming a Serious Aspect.

CLEVELAND, O., July 2.—Five thousand people crowded around the Brown hoisting works when the whistle sounded Wednesday night. The few workmen marched out surrounded by 120 policemen, but the police were unable to place them on the cars because the crowd packed every car before it reached the works. A. T. Stone, one of the "scabs," jumped onto a car contrary to police orders and pulled a revolver and fired two shots at the men who were crowding onto the car. His first shot took effect in the shoulder of Ben Ions, one of the strikers. The wound, though serious, is not dangerous. The police promptly arrested Stone, and giving up any attempts to put the men onto street cars started on a two mile march to the central station. By the time the center of the city was reached, all the factories having closed for the night, there was a howling mob of ten thousand following the police and jeering. After the men had been marched into the Central station, the police drove the mob from the vicinity of the Central station and let the scared workmen out through a saloon which abuts on an alley behind the station.

BOARD OF ARBITRATION

Holds a Conference With the Officials of the Cleveland Stone Co. With No Satisfactory Results.

CLEVELAND, O., July 2.—A special to the Press from Mayview, O., says: Mayor Christian, of Berea, has pressed into service nearly every business man in town as deputy sheriff to aid in quelling the riots at the stone quarries. The state board of arbitration had a conference with the officials of the Cleveland Stone company Thursday morning with no satisfactory result. The company refuses to recognize the strikers. They have posted a notice stating that all strikers may return to work before Monday. A body of Poles from Newburg, O., are ready to take the places of the strikers after Monday. If these men go to work in place of the strikers a bloody fight is anticipated. Sheriff Leek has a warrant for the arrest of F. W. Prentiss, district organizer of the Knights of Labor, who is suspected of inciting the Poles to the violence of Wednesday. Prentiss can not be found.

Shot for Stealing Bees.

WEST UNION, O., July 2.—James Leonard shot and fatally wounded Thomas Whaley at Wrightsville while the latter was in the act of carrying away a hive full of bees from Leonard's yard. Leonard had suspected Whaley of stealing from him for some time and was keeping a watch. Whaley will die. Leonard gave himself up.

Troops Ordered Out.

CLEVELAND, O., July 2.—Late Thursday afternoon company I of the Fifth regiment was ordered out to assist in quelling the anticipated Brown hoisting company riots. Four other companies were held under arms at their armories. One hundred and fifty police were on guard.

Fired Into a Train.

CHILLICOTHE, O., July 2.—Three shots from shotguns were fired by unknown parties into the north-bound express on the Norfolk & Western, near Higby's, 12 miles below here. Two windows were broken and it is reported that one passenger received several shot in the face.

A Farmer Hangs Himself.

NAPOLEON, O., July 2.—Alex Swanger, a Damascus Township farmer, committed suicide by hanging himself to the rafters in his barn. No cause assigned.

A PRONUNCIAMENTO

Will Probably Be Issued at Chicago by the Silver Leaders.

CHICAGO, July 2.—There was an important conference of silver leaders in Senator Daniel's room at the Sherman house, at which a draft of a pronouncement which will be issued later in the preliminary convention proceedings was read and discussed. Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky; Senator Tillman, of South Carolina; Col. Charles H. Jones, of St. Louis, and several others were present. Col. Jones was the reader and an occasional vigorous paragraph denouncing the demonetization of silver or the efforts of the gold men in the party to prevent its triumphant reinstatement in the platform of the party, at least, was wafted out into the corridors.

Sensor Daniel declined to say when the manifesto will be issued, or even to admit that there would be one.

Highway Robbers in a New Field.

CHICAGO, July 2.—The highway robbers of Chicago entered a new field Wednesday night and made their first attack on the elevated railroad system. At 9:30 Wednesday evening three men with drawn revolvers compelled the ticket agent of the Metropolitan railroad, at Van Buren and Canal streets, to turn over the money in his cash drawer. Only $9.50 was secured, but that happened to be all the ticket agent had at the time. The men then made their escape.

State Debt Paid.

COLUMBUS, O., July 2.—The sum of $250,000 of the permanent debt of the state fell due Wednesday, and was paid off in full. Another sum of $500,000, belonging to the temporary debt of the state, was refunded.
